Palisades Welcomes New Veteran-Owned Restaurant

Café Vino DC is now open in the Palisades District of Washington, D.C.

January 1, 2022, Washington, D.C. – Café Vino DC is now open, located in the heart of MacArthur Blvd in the Palisades Community of D.C., and is proudly U.S. Military veteran-owned.

The new restaurant prides itself on helping American families make memories and sharing all good and bad times together. Owner, Nick Virk, had the great honor of spending years in public service with the United States Military through battles in Iraq, mountains in Kosovo, tribal villages of Afghanistan, and protecting the U.S. Capitol.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Virk decided to venture a new battle of the American Small Business domain.

“When I began my search, I found this beautiful place next to Georgetown – and as an immigrant child growing up on the other side of the river, I fell in love with the community and the people and decided this was the place to pursue the next chapter of life,” said Virk.

Café Vino DC offers a full-service wine and cocktail bar while featuring wood-fired cuisine. Their menu showcases prosciutto-wrapped pears, wood-fired salmon, four cheese ravioli, and of course, customizable wood-fired pizza. The restaurant interior provides an upscale modern atmosphere with a homegrown feel. The restaurant also has a spacious patio for outdoor dining.

Café Vino offers carry-out ordering, private events, wine tastings, and catering. They are open Tuesday – Thursday, 11 am – 10 pm, Friday and Saturday, 11 am – 11 pm, and Sunday, 11 am – 9 pm, along with weekly specials like Frontline Friday, where community public service members can enjoy happy hour specials.
